

PSHE

Intent

At Nevill Road Infant School, we value PSHE as a creative and enjoyable part of our broad and balanced school curriculum. We believe that it should be fully inclusive to every child, offering opportunities for challenge and discussion. Our aim is to motivate the children to explore the similarities and differences of their peers as well as their own rights and responsibilities in the community. The children will be provided with many opportunities to share, discuss and listen.

Implementation

At Nevill Road Infant School, we aim to do M-O-R-E:

- MOTIVATE by exposing our children to a wide range of lifestyles and culture, building in them an enthusiasm to be a tolerant member of society.
- OPEN MINDS by teaching within the context of our vibrant, bold topics throughout the school, our children will be immersed in a progressive and stimulating PSHE curriculum. This will be centred on the knowledge and skills embedded within the National Curriculum
- REACH further by introducing our children to a wealth of key British values, children will have lots of opportunities to share, discuss and develop their skills
- EQUIP our children with the knowledge, skills and resources to allow them to challenge themselves to be reflective, global citizens.

Impact

Our children will reach the end of their journey at Nevill Road Infant School with a firmly-established love of PSHE. They will have amassed an impressive collection of cross-curricular, creative outcomes and an awareness and knowledge of a variety of values, including democracy, the rule of law, freedom, respect and tolerance. They will be confident in evaluating and improving their work and unafraid of trying out new and bold ideas. Our school displays and children's work books will reflect these creative outcomes and also, the children's sense of pride in their PSHE work across the school.
